

CORE RETURN INSTRUCTIONS

Please use the following instructions when returning your core:

-Please use the wooden box for your core return, if the old motor does not come back in the same box, then $25 will be deducted from your core refund. Let us know if the box was damaged in shipment and you are unable to reuse the same box.

-Please return the old core within 14 days. If your core is not received within 30 days then your refund may be forfeited, unless you have made special arrangements with H&W.

-Anything beyond normal wear and tear may decrease the amount of refund you get back (i.e. missing parts, broken housings, ect.).

-Shipment back will be at the cost of the customer. If you send the unit back collect, than that amount will be deducted off of your refund.

-Please ship back to:
